About the Product Stewardship Society

The Need: Today more than ever, all companies are facing growing regulatory challenges around the globe, product deselection is happening, and sustainability is here to stay. The need for the product stewardship profession has never been greater.

The Solution: Launched in 2012 as an affiliate of AIHA®, the Product Stewardship Society (PSS) empowers professionals to achieve the responsible design, development, and management of products through their life cycle – to create a world of safe, trusted, and sustainable products. Our nearly 1000 individual members work collaboratively and represent the entire value chain, with ready access to suppliers, manufacturers, customers, and end users. The society provides resources, professional development, and networking opportunities that serve the needs of product stewardship professionals globally.

Benefits

PSS provides its members with the education and knowledge to enhance their skills as practicing product stewardship professionals. It’s a space where product stewards (PS) can further advance the science, knowledge, and practice in the field. It’s a community to solve the challenges we are all facing today. Finally, it’s an opportunity to meet others in your profession and develop long lasting relationships as both professional colleagues and friends. Benefits include:

- Exclusive access to monthly Member Meet-Ups
- Reduced registration ($200) to PSX, the profession’s premier annual conference, attended by hundreds of PS across the value chain and some two dozen suppliers who serve the profession.
- Reduced registration ($200) to courses, including the Certified Professional Product Steward (CPPS) Exam Prep, which sets you apart from the competition
- Reduced registration to in-person and online webinars & workshops, offering a deeper dive into cutting edge topics of relevance to the profession
- Preferred pricing on Stewardship On Demand recordings, with access to over 200 education sessions
- Subscription to Full Circle monthly e-news, delivering relevant and time-sensitive industry information of interest (e.g., global regulatory, product challenges, etc.)
- Preferred pricing on publications, practical, actionable knowledge written by PS experts for PS practitioners.
- Free shipping on bookstore orders for domestic (USA) members
- Personalized access to PS salary and compensation dashboards
- Listing in and access to the online membership directory
- A community platform on LinkedIn
- Volunteer opportunities, a great way to network with others and build leadership skills while furthering the profession.
- Access to Career Management services, to help you manage your career for maximum potential for success.

PSS offers both Individual & Team Membership opportunities. To learn more and join today, visit productstewards.org.