Article I—Name
The organization shall be known as the North Texas Local Section of the American Industrial Hygiene Association (NTS-AIHA).

Article II—Purpose
The purpose of the North Texas Local Section shall be to promote the purposes of the American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA), as set forth in its Articles of Incorporation, within the geographic boundaries of North Texas.

Article III—Membership

Section 1. Any member of AIHA, residing within the geographic boundaries of the local section, may become a member of the local section upon payment of local section dues. Subject to approval by a two-thirds vote of the local section Executive Committee, any member of AIHA living outside the geographic boundaries of the local section may become a member of the local section. A member of AIHA may be a member of more than one local section.

Section 2. On payment of Local dues, and approval by a two-thirds vote of the local section Executive Committee, any person having a professional interest in industrial hygiene may become an associate member of the Local Section, entitled to the privileges of Local Section membership.

Section 3. Emeritus membership in the Local Section may be extended to a member who has retired from the practice of the industrial hygiene profession, with the approval of the Local Section Executive Committee. An Emeritus Member retains all privileges of membership in the Local Section but will not be assessed local dues.

Section 4. Additional classes of membership in the local section may be created with approval of the Board of Directors of AIHA.
Article IV—Membership Meetings

Section 1. Meetings of the Local Section shall be held at the time and place designated by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. An Annual Meeting shall be held in May, at which the installation of officers and directors shall take place.

Section 3. Special meetings shall be called at the discretion of the President, with the approval of the Executive Committee, or in response to the written request of twenty percent (20%) of the members of the Local Section in good standing.

Section 4. Notice of the time and place of any meeting shall be delivered by mail or e-mail not less than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 5. The presence of 20 percent of the members of the local section in good standing shall be required to constitute a quorum for any meeting.

Article V—Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Local Section shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer, and immediate Past President. The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers of the local section. Only members of AIHA may be elected as officers. No person shall serve as officer in more than one local section at the same time. An officer need not reside or work in the geographic boundaries of the local section. Officers shall be elected by the members of the Local Section by March 31 of each year, and the Local Section shall give notice of the names and addresses of the newly elected officers to the Executive Director within thirty (30) days of such election. Officers will be installed in May and serve until their successors are installed.

Section 2. The officers of the local section shall be elected by ballot for terms of office as hereinafter provided, which terms shall begin and end on the date of the annual meeting. Each officer shall hold office until a successor shall have been duly elected or until death, resignation, or removal. The local section shall give notice of the names and addresses of the newly elected officers to AIHA within 30 days of such election.

Section 3. A vacancy in office because of the death, resignation, or removal of an officer may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term. If the vacancy occurs in the office of President-Elect, the member appointed to fill the vacancy shall not automatically succeed the President, and the President for the following year shall be elected at the next annual meeting of the local section.

Section 4. An officer may resign by oral tender of resignation at any meeting of the Executive Committee or by giving written notice thereof to the Executive Committee. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified and acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. An officer may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting expressly called for that purpose, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. The President shall preside at all meetings of the local section membership, Board of Directors, and of the Executive Committee and shall perform such other duties as may be directed by the Executive Committee. The President shall appoint, subject to the provisions of these bylaws, members and chairs of all committees. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. The President shall serve a one-year term of office.

Section 7. The President-Elect automatically shall succeed the President in office upon completion of the President’s term of office. The President-Elect, in the President’s absence, shall preside at all meetings of the Local Section membership, Board of Directors and Executive Committee and shall perform any duties delegated by the Board of Directors or assigned by the President. The President-Elect shall serve a one-year term of office.
Section 8. The Past President shall serve as chair of the Nominating Committee. The Past President shall perform such other duties delegated by the Board of Directors or assigned by the President. The Past President shall serve a one-year term of office.

Section 9. The Treasurer shall receive, disburse, and be custodian of all funds of the Local Section. All disbursements shall be made upon authorization of the Executive Committee. The Treasurer shall prepare a preliminary annual financial report and submit the accounts of the Local Section for audit at the last meeting of the Board of Directors prior to the Annual Meeting of the Local Section. The Treasurer shall present a final annual financial report at the Annual Meeting of the Local Section. The Treasurer shall serve a two-year term of office. After the Annual Meeting of the Local Section, the Treasurer shall transmit to his/her successor in office, all funds and property of the Local Section.

Section 10. The Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the local section, Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee; maintain an accurate list of the members and their membership status; keep a record of the transaction of business that may come before such meetings; and be custodian of the records of the local section. The Secretary shall serve a two-year term of office. After the annual meeting of the local section, the Secretary shall transmit to his/her successor in office all records and property of the local section.

Section 11. The terms of office for the Secretary and Treasurer shall be staggered such that only one is elected at each annual election. The officers shall serve their respective term unless a successor is elected and installed at a special election.

Article VI – Directors

Section 1. Except as these Bylaws may require that action shall be otherwise authorized or taken, all authority of the Association shall be exercised by its Board of Directors.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall consist of the at-large directors and the officers. Any member of the local section in good standing may be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors of the local section.

Section 3. The three (3) elective directors shall be elected to serve for a term of three (3) years. The term of the office of the directors shall be staggered so that one new director is elected each year. Any member of the Local Section in good standing may be elected a director. Elections shall take place by March 31 of each year. The directors will be installed in office in May and serve until their successor is installed.

Section 4. A director may resign at any time, either by oral tender of resignation at any meeting of the Board of Directors or by giving written notice thereof to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified and acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. The Board of Directors may, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of its members, remove any director at a meeting expressly called for that purpose.

Section 6. The vacancy in office of any director may be filled by vote of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill such vacancy shall be elected to the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.

Section 7. The Board of Directors shall hold meetings at least twice a year. Meetings may be held in person or by some other means where each officer and director can communicate with all other officers and directors. Notice of the time and place of each meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given not less than five (5) before the date of the meeting, which notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting.

Section 8. The presence of a majority of the Board of Directors is necessary to constitute a quorum of a meeting. The act of a majority present at a meeting at which a quorum exists is the act of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to one vote. Proxy voting shall not be permitted for any purpose.
Section 9. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings shall be taken by the Secretary or a designee.

Section 10. The minutes of the meetings shall be made available to the members either on the web site or upon request of the secretary.

Article VII – Committees

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the governance and management of the Local Section between meetings of the Board of Directors. The President shall serve as Chairman of the Executive Committee. The presence of a majority of the Executive Committee is necessary to constitute a quorum for a meeting. The act of a majority present at a meeting at which a quorum exists is the act of the Executive Committee. Each member of the Executive Committee shall be entitled to one vote. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called at the discretion of the President on not less than five (5) days’ notice.

Section 2. The Program Committee shall consist of not less than three (3) members. The President-Elect shall serve as its chairman. The Program Committee shall present a tentative schedule of programs for the year to the Board of Directors for its approval. On approval of the Board of Directors, the Program Committee will implement arrangements for the programs and provide the Secretary with information to be circulated to the Members of the Local Section.

Section 3. The Nominating Committee shall consist of two (2) members appointed by the President by January 1st and the Immediate Past President who shall serve as its Chairman. The Nominating Committee shall nominate persons for officers and directors of the Local Section and it shall deliver its nominations for each office and directorship in writing to the Secretary for circulation. In addition to nominations made by the Nominating Committee, nominations may be received from the members prior to February 15.

Section 4. The Executive Committee may form ad hoc committees on an as-needed basis.

Article VIII—Local Sections Council Representatives

Section 1. The President and President-Elect shall serve as representatives of the Local Section on the Local Sections Council of AIHA provided that neither is an officer or director of AIHA, in which event the Executive Committee shall appoint another member as such representative.

Section 2. The representatives of the Local Section shall report at the Annual Meeting of the Local Sections Council on the activities of the Local Section and report back to the Local Section on the actions of the Local Sections Council.

Article IX—Public Statements

Section 1. The Local Section shall not issue or publish any public statement that uses any form of the name of AIHA on a policy or technical issue, other than issues which primarily affect the Local Section, without prior consent of the Board of Directors of AIHA.

Section 2. No public statement on any matter, which purports to represent the opinion of the Local Section, shall be issued or published, unless that statement has been authorized by the Executive Committee as expressing the opinion of a majority of the members of the Local Section.

Article X—Dues

Section 1. Annual dues for Local Section membership become payable on the first day of January of each year. The dues per year shall be set by the Board of Directors. Dues are payable in advance and are not refundable.

Section 2. Members accepted for membership between January and September 30 shall pay dues for the current year. Members accepted for membership after September 30 shall pay dues for the following year.
Section 3. Any member whose dues are unpaid on February 1 is not in good standing, and shall have no vote or other privileges of membership in the Local Section. If the dues of any member are not paid within one year of the date due, the membership of the member in the local section shall be terminated subject to reinstatement as provided in Section 4.

Section 4. Any member terminated for nonpayment of dues may be reinstated at any time before the next annual meeting of the year following termination, by payment of dues in arrears together with the dues for the current year.

Article XI—Ballots

Section 1. Officers and Directors of the Local Section shall be elected by ballot of the voting members of the Local Section. The ballot shall be distributed not less than 45 days prior to the Annual Meeting of the Local Section and these ballots shall specify a deadline for return. The President shall promptly report the results of the election to the AIHA.

Section 2. Except as provided in Article XIII, a plurality of the ballots cast in an election of any officer or director or in a referendum on any issue to be considered or action to be taken shall be effective to constitute the election of a person as an officer or director of the Local Section and as a decision or act of the Local Section with respect to any issue to be considered or any action to be taken. In the event of a tie vote in any election of officer or director, the tie shall be resolved by vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. The Board of Directors, at any time, may conduct by e-mail and/or mail ballot, a referendum of the membership of the Local Section in connection with an issue it may consider or action to be taken.

Section 4. Any ballot may be distributed by either mail, email or other electronic means.

Article XII—Dissolution

The Local Section shall use its funds only to accomplish the purposes specified in these bylaws. No part of the funds shall be used to the advantage of any single person or entity or be distributed to the members of the local section. In the event of the dissolution or final liquidation of the local section, its remaining net assets shall be distributed to such nonprofit corporations or associations as are exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as deemed appropriate by the AIHA Board of Directors.

Article XIII—Amendments

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended or new Bylaws adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Local Section who respond to a ballot conducted in accordance with the provisions of Article XI.

Section 2. Such amended or new Bylaws shall become effective upon approval by the Board of Directors of AIHA.
